

Bids opened for intermodal center

Quandel Construction Group Inc. emerged as the apparent low bidder for general construction contract for the County of Lackawanna Transit System's long-awaited intermodal transportation center in downtown Scranton.

In all, officials from COLTS and construction manager Michael Baker International on Tuesday opened 13 bids for the five contracts that will be awarded for the center on Lackawanna Avenue.

Quandel, of Scranton, submitted a base bid of $5,770,543 for the general construction contract. The other bidders were Lobar Inc., Dillsburg, at $6,220,000 and Wilmer R. Schultz Inc., Emmaus, at $7,446,608.
